6.1 Let us Think — A. Answer the following

Q1 What was Meena playing with?

Meena was playing with paper boats. She put them in the stream and watched them sail.

Q2 Meena was angry. Why?

Meena was angry because a naughty boy was overturning her paper boats in the stream.

Q3 How did Meena help the boy?

Meena helped the boy by showing him how to fold and re-fold coloured paper to make paper boats.

6.2 Let us Think — B. Think and answer

Q1 Meena made paper boats. What else can you make with paper? Discuss in small groups.

Sample answer: We can make paper aeroplanes, flowers, fans, and hats with paper.

Q2 What games do you play with your friends? Which one do you like the most? Why?

Sample answer: I play cricket, hide-and-seek, and kho-kho with my friends. I like cricket the most because it is exciting and we all play together as a team.

6.3 Let us Think — C. Say whether True or False

Q1 The boy thought it was fun to overturn paper boats.

True. The boy said, "Because it is fun" when Meena asked why he was overturning the boats.

Q2 Meena ran home to complain about the boy.

False. Meena did not run home; she spoke to the boy directly and asked him to stop.

Q3 The boy did not know how to make paper boats.

True. The boy said he did not know how to fold the paper to make boats.

Q4 Meena had only white paper.

False. Meena had coloured paper of different sizes.

6.4 Let us Speak — Tell the story of Manish saves the ant

Q1 Look at the pictures. Tell the story of 'Manish saves the ant' to the class.

One day Manish was walking to school with his bag. He saw a tiny ant drowning in a stream. He quickly folded a piece of paper into a boat and put it near the ant. The ant climbed onto the paper boat and floated safely to the bank. Manish smiled happily when the ant reached the shore.
