8.1 Let us Think — A. Answer the following

Q1 What did the farmer grow on his farm?

The farmer grew a variety of fruits on his farm. He took special care to grow grapes and watermelons in a small corner of his farm.

Q2 What did his wife say?

The farmer's wife said that this year the best fruits on their farm were the watermelons and the grapes.

Q3 Why did the farmer decide to take the grapes?

The farmer decided to take the grapes because watermelons were too heavy to carry on the long journey to the palace.

Q4 What did the King do playfully?

The King playfully threw grapes at the farmer while he was in a playful mood.

Q5 Why did the farmer say, 'Thank God!'?

The farmer said 'Thank God!' because he was relieved that he had chosen to bring grapes instead of watermelons. If the King had thrown watermelons at him, it would have hurt a lot.

8.2 Let us Think — B. Think and say

Q1 The farmer in the story grew fruits. What else can a farmer grow?

Sample answer: A farmer can also grow vegetables like tomatoes, potatoes, and onions, grains like wheat and rice, and flowers like roses and marigolds.

Q2 Are there women farmers? Do you know any?

Sample answer: Yes, there are women farmers. They work hard on farms just like men. I do not personally know any woman farmer, but I have seen them on television.

Q3 If you meet a farmer, what would you say to them?

Sample answer: If I meet a farmer, I would say, 'Thank you for working so hard to grow the food we eat. You are very important to all of us.'
