SECTION A – (Reading Skills) (22 marks)

1. Read the following passage carefully : 12

(1) It was a bleak, rainy day, and I had no desire to drive up the winding mountain road to my daughter Carolyn's house. But she had insisted that I come and see something at the top of the mountain.

(2) So, here I was, reluctantly making the two-hour journey through fog that hung like veils. By the time I saw how thick it was near the summit, I'd gone too far to turn back. Nothing could be worth this, I thought, as I inched along the perilous highway.

(3) "I'll stay for lunch, but I'm heading back down as soon as the fog lifts," I announced when I arrived. "But I need you to drive me to the garage to pick up my car," Carolyn said. "Could we at least do that ?"

(4) "How far is it ?" I asked. "About three minutes," she said. "I'll drive — I'm used to it."

(5) After ten minutes on the mountain road, I looked at her anxiously. "I thought you said three minutes." She grinned. "This is a detour."

(6) Turning down a narrow track, we parked the car and got out. We walked along a path that was thick with old pine needles. Huge black-green evergreens towered over us. Gradually, the peace and silence of the place began to fill my mind.

(7) Then we turned a corner and stopped — and I gasped in amazement. From the top of the mountain, sloping for several acres across folds and valleys, were rivers of daffodils in radiant bloom. A profusion of colour — from the palest ivory to the deepest lemon to the most vivid salmon — blazed like a carpet before us. It looked as though the sun had tipped over and spilled gold down the mountainside.

(8) At the centre, cascaded a waterfall of purple hyacinths. Here and there were coral-coloured tulips. And as if this bonanza were not enough, western bluebirds frolicked over the heads of the daffodils, their tawny breasts and sapphire wings like a flutter of jewels.

(9) A riot of questions filled my mind. Who created such beauty ? Why ? How ? As we approached the home that stood in the centre of the property, we saw a sign that read : "Answers to the Questions I Know You Are Asking."

(10) The first answer was : "One Woman — Two Hands, Two Feet." The second was : "One at a Time." The third : "Started in 1958."

(11) As we drove home, I was so moved by what we had seen, I could scarcely speak. "She changed the world," I finally said, "one bulb at a time. She started almost 40 years ago, probably just the beginning of an idea, but she kept at it."

(12) The wonder of it would not let me go. "Imagine," I said, "if I'd had a vision and worked at it, just a little bit every day, what might I have accomplished ?" Carolyn looked at me sideways, smiling. "Start tomorrow," said she. "Better yet, start today."

Same is with the X for incorrect answer.) ● Half or a part of answer marked correct and the rest as wrong, but no marks awarded.
14	While evaluating the answer books if the answer is found to be totally incorrect, it should be marked as cross (X) and awarded zero (0)Marks.
15	Any un assessed portion, non-carrying over of marks to the title page, or totalling error detected by the candidate shall damage the prestige of all the personnel engaged in the evaluation work as also of the Board.
